THE BOATMAN.

A maiden sits in a tiny bark
Singing so sweetly.
The boatman he is grim and dark,
Rowing so fleetly.

The stream is narrow, the banks are fair;
"Rest thee, good master."
He's her longing, vain her prayer,
He rows the faster.

And lo, a woman where sat the maid
Who sang so sweetly;
The boatman, grim and undismayed,
Still rowing fleetly.

On and on, till they reach the sea
That flows for ever.
And drift away on the ocean free,
Returning never.

And vain it is for the earthly eye
To follow thither;
And vainly mortal tongue may cry,
"Gone—whither, whither?"

Our Scripture Lesson For Sept. 21st.
Read Psalms 103: 1-22.

Let us all praise God for his goodness toward us, and we will not only be doing what is expected from us here, but we will have begun our heavenly work; for our Bible teaches us that in heaven there will be praising and rejoicing forever. We should not give thanks unto God with lips, only, but with our whole heart, feel his goodness towards us and our thoughts will often rise in gratitude, and our voices will plainly show what we feel.

We sometimes forget all of the blessings which we receive from day to day, and when we do this we cannot enjoy life as we could if we always kept in memory the daily care of our Father.

Sometimes we hear grown people say that children have no trials, no vexations, and that in our childhood we are happiest. But children have little troubles and they seem as great to them as larger ones do to the older people. Then, children, the Psalmist speaks to you as well as to parents and teachers. Remember that when we have done anything wrong that God is very willing to forgive us and after we feel his forgiveness and are again happy let us often think of His tender mercies, how He is always thinking of our welfare, and it pleases him if we think of Him morning, noon and evening.

My dear children, you should be careful even now, for youth is the time you form life habits. Do not think that you are living your best days and you are not to think that we are living for a purpose. Everything has its significance. The stars above us declare the power and glory of an all wise God: the earth, with its rows of busy workshops, tells us that if man would live he must work, the fields of vegetation prove to us, that what we sow, we reap. If we would live with God and his angels hereafter, we must faithfully work while we are here, in God's work-shop. Let us all deserve the mercies we receive from day to day by being obedient to God and never cease to praise him for all his goodness.

Why should we praise God? How should we praise Him and when?

Gather the Little Ones.

Gather the little ones into the fold.
Bring them to Jesus ere they grow old.
Tell them the Savior, in his kind love,
Cares for the children ever above.

Gather the little ones, bring them to-day;
Keep not the children from him away.
Gentle the Shepherd, hear his sweet voice;
"Come unto me and make me your choice."

Gather the little ones—they shall be blest;
Crown them he will give them a sure rest;
Angels will watch them, tenderly high;
Jesus will give them welcome on high.

We would all enjoy hearing from the other members of our youthful band of volunteers.

What has become of our Dew Drops this week? There is only one pearly drop that has succeeded in this the past week.

We have another good letter from Uncle Perry this week. You see he is much interested in us and our work. Now, let us go to work more in earnest than ever, feeling that we have the attention of these older and wiser heads. We must not fail as it would greatly grieve our friends. We should hear from each correspondent at least once a month.

Our report for the dew drop fund for the week ending Sept., 17.

Dear Children: I told you in my last letter that you all could become preachers, if you would go to Sunday school every Sunday and learn to read the Bible. It is strange, is it not? that I should say all of you could be preachers, the girls as well as the boys? Well I will now tell you how that can be. When you go to Sunday school and read the Bible, do you not soon learn to love it? You then learn to love God because the Bible is his Word. When you once love God and his word, you will soon learn then to love your father and mother, brothers and sisters, teachers and classmates, and every thing more than you did before, because the Bible teaches us "to love each other." Now, just as soon as you feel that way, you will become wiser, kinder and more lovable. You will not swear and say all sorts of naughty things about other people, because God says, we must not swear, or talk bad about our neighbors. You will not do any of these, but will act well, and always try to make others happy.

Other little boys and girls, and lots of old men and women, who do not go to Sunday school, will see how much better the Bible has made you, and then they will want to go to Sunday school, too, and learn to read the Bible. This is the way you will become preachers, by causing others to do right through your good action. These are the best kind of preachers, because they preach all the time, every day and night of their lives.

One time a great philosopher was asked what led him from philosophy, to religion, he replied "that it was the godly lives of the first Christians."

Another time a lot of barbarians who became converted were asked, what made them Christians,—preaching or reading of the Bible. They said, "It was the change in the lives of those who became Christians." Was that not a lot of good to be done by action preaching? Such good is being done all the time where action preachers are at work. Would you not like to be one of those preachers who preach all the time? God loves them very much. He wants everybody to be one.

How many of the little boys and girls who read our paper will say, in their next letter, that they belong to this company of preachers, and are trying to preach by their good actions?

YOUR UNCLE PERRY.

Letters from the Children.

Aunt Lottie: Papa takes the EVANGELIST. I love to read the Youth's Department, as I have never seen a letter from this part of Kansas in the paper I will write. We attend church and Sabbath-school at Galesburg. I united with the church before I was twelve years old, and I have never been sorry that I enlisted in the good cause. Our Bible teaches us to remember our Creator in the days of our youth. I love to go to church and Sabbath school. I have three brothers and no sisters. I have a good home, and a kind Papa and Mamma, who teach us to love Jesus. Enclosed you will find ten cents for the Dewdrop. I hope to do more in the future.

PEARL CLUM.

Galesburg, Kans.

This letter has a tone to it that is very pleasant to us.

My little Pearl your letter has had a cheering effect. I trust that you may never feel discouraged in your work. Your little deed of kindness will not go unrewarded. May your faith grow stronger each year you live.

Dear Editor:

I will try and write to the EVANGELIST again. My father takes the EVANGELIST, and I see so many good little letters from the children I thought I would write again to help fill the children's column. I have seven brothers and two sisters; my oldest brother lives in Ashland. We all belong to the Brethren church but four of us. I will copy a verse from a little book that I have, and this is it:

Oh look up to the soft blue sky,
Arch'd above thee, bright and fair;
Cold is the heart, and dull the eye,
Which feels not, sees not God is there.

What did one of the Pharisees desire of Christ and what was his name?

LABAN DAVIS.

Junction City, Kans.
We are pleased to hear again from you, Laban. I would advise you to commit the little stanza you send us. True it is that the heart of man is cold if he fails to see a divinity in the grandeur about us. I trust it may ever be perceptible to you.

Dear Lottie:

I don't believe I can say anything of much interest for this time. I hope the children will commence and write often, for I like to read the letters from them very well. I think they are all very interesting to read. I was glad to hear from Aunt Laura again. I think her letter was very good. I will send a poem for this time about "Gather the Little Ones". I will now close by asking if some one won't tell me how often the word And is mentioned in the Old and New Testament.

ELMA ARMSTRONG.

Atwood, Ind.

Even if you cannot say much we are glad to learn that you are still interested in the Youth's department. The selection is worthy our attention. When we study our scripture lesson for this week we will find this little poem well suited to read in connection.

How Little Girls May Help.

A little girl's mission band has been at work for the last year in Norwalk, Ct. It was originated by two or three girls who had attended, with their mothers, a ladies' missionary meeting, and had been interested in the address of a returned missionary lady. The meetings of the band have been held monthly, conducted by the youthful president, who with a secretary and treasurer, is chosen from its own number. These meetings have been opened by prayer, and consisted of the reading of missionary news, history, and poetry. One of the by-laws is, that each little girl shall earn her weekly penny for the treasury; and as a fruit of their efforts they send this month ten dollars to the Woman's Missionary Society, designated to Miss Rand, whom they met and in whom they became personally interested, before she left this country. They feel that she is their missionary, and they anticipate her letters with peculiar interest. It is a day of small things—a handful of corn in the top of the mountains—but "the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon" if the Lord vivify the seed.—Helping Hand.

The Boy and the Man.

Discontented people can never learn that their lot in life is better for them than the lot of those they envy. This illustration comes from Danbury: There was a business man standing in front of the Wooster house, picking his teeth, the other morning. He was doing this in a mechanical way, as his mind was employed upon a weighty matter. While he stood there, a boy approached with a bundle of books under his arm. He was going to school but he wanted to go elsewhere. He saw the business man standing in the shade and leisurely picking his teeth, and then he thought of the hot school-room, with its tasks, and of the cool woods and fishing brooks, and groaned within himself as he said: "I wish I was a man, so as I could do as I please." The man stood there. He had a note of $400 to pay before the bank closed, and he had goods to order from a firm he already owed, and he had $25 in his pocket, and no earthly possibility of collecting more. Then his eyes fell upon the boy going to school, and he sighed and said: "Would to heaven that I was a boy again at school!"

PERUNA

Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession, and then to the public at large, by S. B. Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 40,000 patients with the most gratifying results.

Its effect upon the system is entirely unlike that of any other remedy, and the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. In all cases no equal.

PERUNA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, each one, according to medical authors, a great remedy in itself. Dr. Hartman has succeeded in extracting and combining the active principles of these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly coincides with the medicinal action of nature in every disease, and a cure necessarily follows. There is not an organ it will not reach, nor a disease it will not cure.

Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's pamphlet on the "Use of Life," by S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

A REMARKABLE BOOK.

THE WONDERS OF PRAYER

A Book of Well Authenticated and Wonderful Answers to Prayer.

THE MOST WONDERFUL BOOK OF MODERN TIMES

To a greater extent than any other book, and in an extraordinary record of facts, with over five hundred interesting incidents, it fully answers that all-important question, "DOES GOD ANSWER PRAYER?"

It also shows that the promises of the Bible are actually true, and faithfully fulfilled in the daily lives of those who are constantly trusting in the Lord, and ask His help in their daily anxieties and experiences. It is a book of great comfort and encouragement to Christians, in their doubt, fear, sorrow, or trouble, to trust Him more fully in faith, and shows how He who delivered others in times of distress, peril, or solicitude, can hear and deliver them also.

To those who are not Christians, it is a record of undoubted facts from the experiences of individuals now living, proving the real existence and power of God, in controlling circumstances, directing human wills, and all things of earth, showing His nearness and power in daily events of life, and demonstrating that He is not a distant Creator, but ever near at hand.

CONTENTS.

This volume contains several hundred instances where Prayer has been heard and answered in the following circumstances of life: Healing; Recovery from severe Sickness; Delivery from Death; Delivery in Perilous Situations; Miraculous Cures of Diseases and Deformed Persons; Help in Poverty; Relief from Starvation; Instantly Cured; All Appetite for Sexually Remedy; Evil Habits Overcome; Drunkenness Cured; Appetite for Tobacco and Liquor taken wholly away; Sins Overcome and Served; Bad Men Confounded; Oppressors and Wrongdoers Punished; Wonderful Revivals; Proof of the Eternity of the Holy Spirit; Timely Help in Financial Danger and Need; How Liberal Gifts to the Lord and the Poor have been Blessed; How the Sick, Poor, Afflicted, and Helpless, have been cured by constantly; How Work and Employment have been Obtained; How Lives have been Saved from Accidents and Death; How Plans in Life have been wholly Frustrated and Changed for the Better; How the Schemes of Bad Men have been Spoiled; How the Lord has Controlled the Natural Elements of Earth, the Winds, the Waves, the Lightning, the Rain, Tempests, Snow and Hail, stopped their work of destruction, to Aid, Strengthen, Relieve, Help, or Deliver some poor Christian who has cried to Him in Prayer.

A multitude of such instances are given, all from experiences of individuals of the present day, still living, which fully satisfy any one that the same God who did wonders in the days of Abraham, Joseph, Jacob, Joshua, David, Elijah, and Ezekiel; the same Lord who walked in Palestine, healing the sick, curing the blind, and hailing the dead, performing miracles, is still, though unseen, with us this very day, performing as many wonders and miracles as in the days of old. By strong faith, Christians who have laid hold of the promises, and trusted in their unseen Lord, pleading to Him in their extremities of life, have given their testimonies that they have found their God faithful.

Being a book of facts only, of most positive authenticity, it most practically sets at naught all the modern books of Science, Speculation, Philosophy, and Human Reason, which would try to build the world without a Creator. Neither does this book depend upon history, but is a record of occurrences of the present day, and from facts of Answered Prayer proves that there is a Superior Power, a living God, and that all contained in the Bible is true, because its promises have been actually fulfilled.

This book should be in every Christian home, it is invaluable to all Sabbath-school teachers and scholars. It should be given to every child, for it contains pure and beautiful instruction to encourage the faith of every one, and aims to lead all to come with more willing minds to learn of the Great Comforter.

It contains no philosophies, no denominational discussions, tenets, or principles, is not issued in connection with any religious society; is not an advocate of any sect, nor a record of sectarian superstitions, nor fanatical thoughts, theories, or imaginations. It is a simple, humble, candid book of honest facts and experiences common to all. "Will God ever now answer prayer?" "Will God ever now answer prayer?"
